Upcoming Events

Monday, March 5
11:20 a.m.-1 p.m.
Iman Hakim, MD, PhD – A Lemon a Day Keeps the Cancer Away
Luncheon lecture
Manning House, Tucson

Wednesday, March 7
6 p.m.-7:30 p.m.
Eric P. Gall, MD – It Only Hurts When I Move It
Living Healthy With Arthritis lecture series
Chase Bank Auditorium
(Room 8403)
UA College of Medicine – Tucson

Sunday, March 18
7:30 a.m.-10:30 a.m.

Free Forum, ‘Achieving Affordable Health Care,’ Set for March 3
Internationally recognized speakers and panelists headline the Arizona Health Forum, “Achieving Affordable Health Care,” Saturday, March 3. The afternoon event includes a lecture on a national strategy for health care, panel discussions on access to health care, quality and costs and a health and wellness fair with free screenings, educational booths and CPR demonstrations.

Developing Heart Parts?
Specialist in cardiovascular science Kenneth R. Chien, MD, PhD, will highlight advances, challenges and opportunities in the field of regenerative medicine when he delivers the Buffmire Lecture March 6 in Tucson, March 7 in Phoenix. Dr. Chien’s lecture is “Toward

Study Identifies Better Emergency Treatment for Seizure Victims
The UA’s Arizona Emergency Medicine Research Center recently participated in a two-year national study that has found a better, safer emergency treatment for patients with seizures. The AEMRC, with the Arizona Department of Health Services
Heart Stem Cell Therapeutics.

Interdisciplinary Team Leads Environmental Study in Arizona’s Dewey-Humboldt area

Investigators from the UA College of Pharmacy and the UA Mel and Enid Zuckerman College of Public Health are studying the effects of lead, arsenic and five other harmful metals in contaminated sites near Prescott, Ariz.

Critical TGen-UA Cancer Research Funded

A $600,000 grant from the National Foundation for Cancer Research will enable the Translational Genomics Research Institute and the University of Arizona to continue studying targeted cancer therapies for pancreatic cancer, the nation’s fourth leading cause of cancer death.

Finding Out If It's Safe to Swim

An environmental microbiologist at the UA Zuckerman College of Public Health has been awarded a grant to help determine water quality in swimming pools and spas.

Copyright © 2012 Arizona Health Sciences Center, All rights reserved.
You are receiving this email because you are a member of the AHSC community.
Our mailing address is:
Arizona Health Sciences Center
1501 N. Campbell Ave
Tucson, AZ 85724

Add us to your address book
unsubscribe from this list | update subscription preferences