In The News
Wednesday, February 13, 2013

- National increase in ER visits from energy drinks not reflected at UA
  (University of Arizona Medical Center; Keith Boesen, director of the Arizona Poison and Drug Information Center)
  - 02/13/2013 Arizona Daily Wildcat [View Clip]

- George Comerci, pioneer in UA pediatrics, dies at 81
  (Dr. Comerci was one of the founding members of the UA Department of Pediatrics, a past-president of the American Academy of Pediatrics and a major figure in the development of adolescent medicine as a pediatric subspecialty in the United States)
  - 02/13/2013 Arizona Daily Star Inside Tucson Business [View Clip]

- Comrie drops interim status as University of Arizona provost
  - 02/13/2013 The Republic [View Clip]

- Vice president for marketing and media to leave Purdue
  (Teri Lucie Thompson)
  - 02/13/2013 Purdue Exponent Journal and Courier [View Clip]

- Dispatch Walks Caller Through CPR, Child Saved
  (Dr. Ben Bobrow, UA College of Medicine-Phoenix faculty member; dispatcher training is part of the “CPR Academy” that was established in collaboration with the UA Sarver Heart Center Resuscitation Group)
  - 02/12/2013 KSAZ-Fox 10 Phoenix [View Clip]

- Poison center head to speak to mystery writers group
  (F. Mazda Shirazi, the medical director of the Arizona Poison and Drug Information Center at the UA College of Pharmacy)
  - 02/10/2013 Arizona Daily Star [View Clip]