In The News
Tuesday, June 5, 2012

- Scorpion stings on the rise (Dr. Shirazi, Arizona Poison and Drug Control Center)
  - 06/05/2012
  - KOLD-TV

- The Future of Joint Resurfacing (Arizona Arthritis Center Lecture)
  - 06/05/2012
  - Explorer News

- Veterans Say Marijuana Eases PTSD (Dr. Sue Sisley, a Scottsdale internist in private practice and assistant professor of psychiatry and internal medicine at the University of Arizona)
  - 06/04/2012
  - Arizona Republic

- Physicians use minimally invasive laser surgery for epilepsy (UA Department of Surgery)
  - 06/04/2012
  - Medical Xpress
  - Arizona Daily Star
  - UA News

- University of Arizona Health Network Launches CEO Search
  - 06/04/2012
  - Arizona Daily Star

- What Pesticides Are on Your Food? (Dr. Andrew Weil)
  - 06/04/2012
  - Kansas City infoZine

- Komen hoping for a lift from summer fundraisers (Arizona Cancer Center)
  - 06/04/2012
  - Arizona Daily Star

- Stroke Support-Group Meetings (University of Arizona Medical Center)
  - 06/04/2012
  - Tucson Weekly

- Most commonly missing nutrients from the American diet (Andrew Weil, MD, Founder and Director of the Arizona Center for Integrative Medicine at the College of Medicine, University of Arizona)
  - 06/04/2012
  - Examiner.com

- Dr. Phelps offers integrative medicine (University of Arizona; Dr. Andrew Weil)
  - 06/03/2012
  - Ridgefield Press

- Cannibalism is extremely rare, experts say (University of Arizona clinical psychologist Joel Dvoskin)
  - 06/02/2012
  - Chicago Tribune

- Young Tucson woman needs life-saving marrow transplant (University of Arizona Medical Center)
  - 06/01/2012
  - WDAM-TV