In The News
Tuesday, May 1, 2012

“Osteoporosis: You and Your Bones” (Living Health with Arthritis Lecture, Arizona Arthritis Center) 05/01/2012 Arizona Daily Wildcat View Clip

100 Leaders of Great Hospitals (John Duval was the COO of the University of Arizona Medical Center for six years and was also the vice president for professional and ancillary services at University of Arizona's Health Sciences Center) 04/30/2012 Becker's Hospital Review Online View Clip

UA doctors discuss study on diabetes and foot health (Dr. Armstrong and Dr. Mills) 04/30/2012 KVOA - Online View Clip

KIDSCARE ENROLLMENT: Governor Jan Brewer will announce the re-opening of enrollment in KidsCare, giving 21,700 Arizona children access to health care coverage. According to state officials, this is being done with no state cost thanks to involvement from the federal government, Phoenix Children’s Hospital, Maricopa Integrated Health System and the University of Arizona Health Network. 10am, Phoenix Children’s Hospital) 04/30/2012 ABC 15 News View Clip

Carleton Presents “Justice that Heals: Outcomes of Restorative ...(UA Mel & Enid Zuckerman College of Public Health) 04/30/2012 Carleton College News View Clip

Cannabis Clinical Conference Takes a Step Towards the Mainstream (Speaker: Dr. Andrew Weil , Arizona Center for Integrative Medicine) 04/30/2012 Cannabis Culture View Clip

Arthritis: 1/3 Of Patients Also Suffer From Anxiety, Depression (Dr. Eric Gall, interim director of the University of Arizona’s Arthritis Center) 04/30/2012 Huffington Post Inquisitr View Clip

Breathe Easier at Home (Kelly Reynolds, PhD, associate professor of environmental sciences at the University of Arizona in Tucson) 04/30/2012 MSN Health View Clip

Study: Supplements may increase cancer risk (Elizabeth Jacobs, PhD, associate professor of Epidemiology at the University of Arizona Zuckerman College of Public Health) 04/28/2012 WDAM-TV - Online View Clip