TUCSON, Ariz. - A U.S. Border Patrol agent has been seriously injured in a rollover accident in southern Arizona.
The Arizona Department of Public Safety says the crash occurred about 3:40 p.m. Wednesday on State Route 80 about 15 miles north of Douglas.

DPS officials say the Border Patrol pickup truck rolled about 40 feet and ended up in a drainage ditch.

They say the agent was able to get out of the vehicle after the crash. He was conscious and alert when he rescuers took him to University Medical Center in Tucson.

The name and age of the injured agent wasn't immediately available. DPS officials say the cause of the rollover is under investigation.
