In The News
Monday, July 15, 2013

➤ Is Alternative Medicine Really 'Medicine'? (Dr. Victoria Maizes, the executive director of the Arizona Center for Integrative Medicine and a professor of medicine and public health at the University of Arizona)
07/14/2013 Simple Natural Health Secrets
View Clip

➤ Ben's Bells: Helpful University of Arizona Medical Center worker 'does it with a smile' (BJ Godard was nominated by a co-worker at University of Arizona Medical Center)
07/13/2013 Arizona Daily Star
Big News Network
Phoenix Herald
Pharmacy Choice
View Clip
View Clip
View Clip
View Clip

➤ The Medical Establishment's "Favorite" Doctor and his Crusade Against Supplements and Alternative Medicine (Dr. Victoria Maizes, the executive director of the Arizona Center for Integrative Medicine and a professor of medicine and public health at the University of Arizona)
07/12/2013 AlterNet
View Clip

➤ Consciousness Theory (Anesthesiologist Dr. Stuart Hameroff of the University of Arizona)
07/12/2013 Global Warming & Terra Forming Terra
View Clip

➤ Welcome back, Prevention (I think)! I missed you, though (University of Arizona's Doctor Andrew Weil)
07/12/2013 Examiner.com
View Clip

➤ Arizona doctor shortage could get worse with passing of Affordable Care Act (UAMC South Campus)
07/12/2013 KGUN-TV
View Clip

➤ Profile-Driven Medication Management in the ED (The University of Arizona Medical Center—University Campus)
07/09/2013 Pharmacy Purchasing & Products
View Clip

➤ Why Statins Affect Your Memory (Linda L. Restifo, MD, PhD, professor, departments of neurology, neuroscience, and cellular and molecular medicine, The University of Arizona, Tucson)
07/08/2013 Bottom Line Secrets
View Clip