In The News
Wednesday, May 1, 2013

- 13th Annual Himelic Memorial Dinner and Golf Classic, May 31-June 1, Raises Funds for ALS Research at UA College of Medicine
  05/01/2013 Arizona Daily Wildcat
  KVOA-TV

- 'Keeping Joint Pain at Bay' (Dr. Jeffrey Lisse, Arizona Arthritis Center)
  05/01/2013 KVOA-TV

- Practitioner Market Heats Up, Regulators Seek to Quell Inflammation (The University of Arizona’s Program in Integrative Medicine)
  05/01/2013 Nutraceuticals World

- Clinical Research Company, Anolinx, Promises to Bring New Medicines to Market Faster (Dr. Raymond Woosley, was Vice-President and Dean of the College of Medicine at the University of Arizona. Founder of the Critical Path Institute C-Path)
  04/30/2013 KFMB-FM
  KSTC-TV

- Officials study valley fever outbreak at solar power projects (Dr. John Galgiani, professor of medicine at the University of Arizona)
  04/30/2013 Los Angeles Times

- University of Arizona Medical Center - Strategic SWOT Analysis Review - new company profile report
  04/30/2013 TransWorldNews

- Dr. Weil to open The New York Botanical Garden’s “Wild Medicine” exhibit (Andrew Weil, MD: Director of the Arizona Center for Integrative Medicine)
  04/30/2013 Well&Good

- Integrative Nutrition Announces May 2013 Health Coaching Conference (Andrew Weil, MD: Director of the Arizona Center for Integrative Medicine)
  04/30/2013 Newsday