May Events

Thursday, May 9
11:30 a.m.-1 p.m.
Partners in Public Health Luncheon

Thursday, May 9
Noon-1 p.m.
iVIDA! Health Care Professionals Series
Bettina Hofacre (520) 626-326

Thursday, May 9
2-3:30 p.m.
UA College of Nursing 2013 Convocation

The Arizona Center for Rural Health Named 2013 Outstanding Rural Health Organization

The National Rural Health Association (NRHA) has recognized the Center for Rural Health in the UA Mel and Enid Zuckerman College of Public Health at the University of Arizona as its Outstanding Rural Health Organization for 2013.

Survival Rates Up for Cardiac Arrest Victims, Researcher Says

Cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) training that included real-time audiovisual feedback and that emphasized a “pit crew,” or team approach, to pre-hospital care for cardiac arrest patients increased survival by almost 60 percent, according to a study led by a UA College of Medicine – Phoenix faculty member.

Dr. Reel To Become University Distinguished Outreach Professor

Sally J. Reel, PhD, RN, FNP-BC, FAAN, FAANP, associate dean, academic practice and clinical professor, UA College of Nursing, is recipient of the University Distinguished Outreach Faculty Award. It is awarded to outstanding faculty who demonstrate scholarship-based outreach to the state, nation and the world and sustained excellence in the UA outreach mission.

Diamond Children’s Awarded ‘Gold Seal of Approval’

The UA Medical Center – Diamond Children’s is the first pediatric medical center in Arizona to be awarded the prestigious Joint Commission “Gold Seal of Approval” for its pediatric asthma program. It is one of only nine programs in the nation to receive this designation.

Tobacco-Cessation Mobile Phone App Needs Testers

Judith Gordon, PhD, a behavioral psychologist with the Department of Family and Community Medicine in the UA College of Medicine – Tucson, is seeking participants to help test a mobile phone app designed to help people take medication to quit smoking.

UA Public Health Student Receives $30,000 Boren Fellowship

Julie Tippens, MA, MPH, a doctoral candidate in the UA Mel and Enid Zuckerman College of

Dozen UA Health Network RNs Among 2013 Tucson ‘Fabulous 50’ Nurses

Twelve nurses from The University of Arizona Health Network are among those to be Public Health, is a recipient of the David L. Boren Fellowship, which provides as much as $30,000 to U.S. graduate students to add a language component to their graduate education.

Dr. Moore Receives the Henry and Phyllis Koffler Prize

Ida (Ki) Moore, DNSC, RN, FAAN, the Anne Furrow professor of nursing and director, biobehavioral health science division, UA College of Nursing, received the UA Provost’s Henry and Phyllis Koffler Prize, which recognizes faculty across disciplines that model outstanding scholarly accomplishments.

It’s snakebite season again in Arizona

The Arizona Poison and Drug Information Center warns that when the hot weather arrives, rattlesnakes and humans have many more unpleasant encounters. So far during 2013, the center has helped hospitals treat six snakebite victims.
ART ALOUD

Friday May 31
10-11 a.m.
iVIDA! Lay Audience
– Spanish
Noon-1 p.m.
iVIDA! Lay Audience
– English
Contact: Bettina Hofacre
520-626-3265

Friday, May 31, through Saturday, June 1
6-11 p.m. – Friday
7 a.m.-2 p.m. –
Saturday
13th Annual Himelic
Memorial Dinner and Golf Classic