In The News
Thursday, Oct. 17, 2013

 Southern Arizona first responders to be celebrated on 'Heroes Day' (University of Arizona Medical Center)

 Dr. Leslie Boyer named 2013 Arizona Bioscience Researcher of the Year (Leslie Boyer, MD, founding director of the VIPER [Venom Immunochemistry, Pharmacology and Emergency Response] Institute and associate professor of pathology at the University of Arizona College of Medicine – Tucson)

 Local EMT to receive award for off-duty rescue (University of Arizona Medical Center)

 Chest compression only CPR training happening this weekend (UA Sarver Heart Center)

 Secret to Happiness Not So Simple, Scientists Say (UA associate professor of psychiatry Charles Raison)

 Benefits, Risks of Lung Cancer Screen Examined (Dr. Farid Gharagozloo)