The Donald K. Buffmire Visiting Lectureship in Medicine

Thursday, Oct. 6, 2016

Noon - 1 p.m.

UA Cancer Center, Kiewit Auditorium (Room 2951)
1515 N. Campbell Ave., Tucson

Free lunch included.

Michael A. LaCombe, MD, FACC, MACP, LHD (hon)

Dr. LaCombe is a cardiologist and has practiced in Maine for more than 40 years. He is associate editor for the Annals of Internal Medicine and professor of medicine and medical humanities at the University of New England.

The Importance of Family History

Dr. Michael LaCombre has developed a career that blends writing with the practice of medicine. He has published more than 100 essays in peer-reviewed medical journals and has written 13 acclaimed books.

Dr. LaCombe's articles and compositions have been turned into performances and are used for teaching ethics and humanism in various medical schools. His presentation will showcase the importance of teaching and mentoring. He will answer the thought-provoking question "Is there anything to be learned from old professors?"

The lecture will be video streamed live at
