In The News
Tuesday, April 22, 2014

Health Briefs: Komen announces 8 local grant recipients (University of Arizona Foundation for the benefit of Arizona Cancer Center’s ¡Vida! Educational Series Breast Health Promotion Program) 04/21/2014 Arizona Daily Star Tucson News Now

Health Briefs: Camp to teach children healthy habits (UA’s Mel and Enid Zuckerman College of Public Health) 04/21/2014 Arizona Daily Star Tucson News Now

The Disgusting Truth About Your Toothbrush (Charles Gerba, PhD, Professor, Microbiology & Environmental Sciences, University of Arizona College of Public Health) 04/21/2014 Huffington Post

‘Consciousness Central’ TV Channel to Launch at Tucson Conference (Center of Consciousness Studies at UA) 04/21/2014 Newswise

Zumbathon charity event to benefit pediatric cancer patient (University of Arizona Medical Center) 04/21/2014 KVOA Tucson News

Financial strain shows at Carondelet: St. Mary’s, St. Joseph’s and Holy Cross hospitals lost a combined $32 million last year (positive 4.5 percent for the University of Arizona Medical Center’s University campus) 04/19/2014 Arizona Daily Star

VIDEO: Cancer patient walks down aisle in wedding thrown by friends (Arizona Cancer Center) 04/19/2014 Joplin Globe

CDC report: Big increase in nicotine exposure from e-cigarette liquid (Dr. Keith Boesen, director of the Arizona Poison & Drug Information Center) 04/19/2014 Verde Independent Cronkite News

UAMC Study: Do Wearable Sensors Predict and Prevent Patient Falls? (University of Arizona Medical Center) 04/17/2014 KVOA Tucson News

CardioBuzz: A New Vascular Glue? (Marvin J. Slepian, MD, Sarver Heart Center) 04/17/2014 MedPage Today

View Clip
View Clip
View Clip
View Clip
View Clip
View Clip
View Clip
View Clip
View Clip
View Clip
View Clip
View Clip
View Clip
View Clip
View Clip