GME Office Awards Fall 2013 Resident Scholarships

Six resident-physicians in the Graduate Medical Education program at the UA College of Medicine have been awarded the Fall 2013 Resident Excellence and Leadership scholarships through the GME office. The scholarships are designed to promote the academic careers of residents who have a proven track record of excellence and have demonstrated potential in becoming future leaders. “One of our missions,” says Conrad Clemens, MD, Associate Dean for Graduate Medical Education, “is to train our next generation of academic leaders for our community, state and nation. We see these scholarships as an initial investment in these talented, young physicians.” Recipients will use the scholarship to complete a scholarly project or participate in a unique educational experience.

This year’s recipients are:

- Dr. Michael Cheung, Radiation Oncology – Partial Breast Irradiation: Indications and Techniques from the 2013 American Brachytherapy Society School of Breast Brachytherapy
